

2010 WYOMING FOUNDATION COMPETITIVE GRANT AWARDS

$12,474 in funding for 15 organizations including:

Arcade Free Library

$500 to support Books-to-Movie Nights

Arts Council for Wyoming County

$1,500 to support publication of a gift book showing work of local artists

Buffalo Audubon Society

$1,500 to build boardwalks on the Ghost Pond property and to an island in the beaver pond, and to replace the roof on the picnic shelter

Crossroads House

$300 to help cover expenses associated with keeping Wyoming County residents informed and educated about services

Eagle Free Library

$500 to support March Into the Library arts programs

Middlebury Historical Society

$1,000 for the pointing up of both vertical and horizontal joints of the brick structure on The Academy

North Java Fire Department

$1,600 to purchase an automated external defibrillator (AED)

Town of Orangeville Youth Recreation

$254 to fund swim lessons

Perry Public Library

$500 to support Stories Under the Tree program

Stevens Memorial Community Library

$500 to support Wacky Wednesdays

Warsaw Public Library

$500 to provide permanent art display space for local artists, professional and amateur alike, to share their works with patrons

Western New York Rural Area Health Education Center

$1,500 to support the Honeycomb After School program

Wyoming County Business Education Council

$1,020 to support the Junior Achievement Success Skills program

Wyoming County YMCA

$800 to purchase an aquatic wheelchair

Wyoming Free Circulating Library Association

$500 to support the Tween/Teen Gaming Club